NONPROFIT ORGANIZATION RESOURCES

An increasing number of attorneys are involved with the creation and management of nonprofit organizations. The library owns several resources related to nonprofits and recently purchased some new titles that can assist with addressing nonprofit entity issues.

Books

Ohio Forms: Legal and Business includes organizational and governing forms for social, charitable and agricultural cooperative nonprofits. (Also available on CD-ROM and in the library on Westlaw.)

Ohio Transactions Guide vol. 3 includes a section with nonprofit forms.

The Family Foundation Handbook includes information on designing the foundation, operating restrictions, grantmaking, and administration.

Planning for Tax-Exempt Organizations has chapters about planning the nonprofit organization, the charitable trust, private foundations and public charities.

Nonprofit Governance and Management covers board structure and operation, preparing governing documents, leadership roles, strategic planning, and human resources, with sample forms on CDROM.

Law of Tax Exempt Organizations explains nonprofit governance, advantages and disadvantages of nonprofits and types of nonprofits.

The Law of Fundraising discusses state and federal regulation of charitable fundraising.

Good Counsel: Meeting the Legal Needs of Nonprofits, covers incorporation, contracts, fundraising and employment issues. It includes checklists and sample documents.

Nonprofit Organizations: State and Federal Perspectives is an OSBA CLE book about the Charitable Trust Act, non-profit corporate law, the 990 form and FIN 48.

Religious Organizations and the Law discusses options for formation and corporate structure of churches, financial and human resource issues, and interaction with the state.

Tax Planning and Compliance for Tax-Exempt Organizations: Rules, Checklists, Procedures, discusses the characteristics and qualifications of tax-exempt organizations, the differing standards for private foundations, and the requirements for obtaining and maintaining tax-exempt status.

Westlaw

Nonprofit Organizations: Law and Taxation, covers the creation of the entity; discussion of various types such as private foundations, homeowner associations, school and social clubs; and merger and consolidation of entities. It includes sample forms.

Seeking Your Suggestions for Library Materials

The law library has been able to purchase updated versions of some titles that have been out-of-date for several years.

Library funding has stabilized, allowing for these purchases.

Are there resources you would like to see updated or added to the collection?

If so, call the library at: 330-451-7380 or email your suggestions to inform@starklawlibrary.org

New research computers will be coming soon!
